

Verona Specification

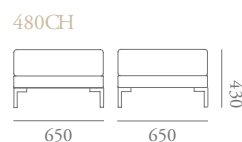

Designed by Katerina Zachariades

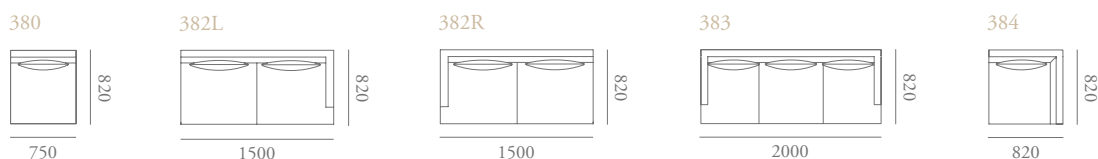

The Verona collection of sofas and chairs has been designed to provide a softer domestic sit and feel, while meeting contract requirements for a firm cushion. The versatile range of options is available either on timber bases or chrome legs and can be linked into a modular system, including a corner unit. Scatter cushions included.

Verona Specification

Modular Systems

Example Configurations

