

Bilbao

Designed by Tim Rundle

morganfurniture.co.uk

The Bilbao collection, designed by Tim Rundle, combines crisp defined edges with gentle, organic surfaces, reminiscent of the Frank-Gehry design museum in the Northern Spanish city after which it is named.

Characterised by soft curvaceous surfaces, the collection evokes a retreat-like atmosphere in commercial spaces, including hospitality, cruise and workplaces.

Delineated by a clear and defined stitch line, Bilbao is inspired by the contrasting textures of soft, organic surfaces and crisp, sharp edges offering relaxed comfort with a generous and inviting aesthetic.

The collection features removable and reversible cushions which increases durability making reupholstery simple.

Designed with an integrated swivel mechanism, the Bilbao lounge chair provides an upright but relaxed sit, encouraging both engagement and conversation.

“We’re seeing an increased preference for softness in hospitality spaces. The Bilbao collection, will help designers bring warmth to those environments, from the social spaces of hotel lobbies and lounges to the privacy of the bedrooms.”
